History:

NO HISTORY CAN BE FOUND

According to the letter written by William Greenberg (found in the photograph files) Sinai Congregation merged with Torath Chaim of Newark. A brief excerpt from William Helmreich's The Enduring Community mentions Sinai Congregation was Hillside's first synagogue and was built in 1925. A phone call proved that the number was no longer in service.

Scope and Content:

This collection is small but contains some documents of interest, including some photographs of groundbreaking ceremonies and some souvenir journals from the Sisterhood anniversary celebrations.
