History:

Native Newarker and historian Warren Grover is a founding member of the Newark History Society, former president of the Jewish Historical Society of MetroWest and has served on the board of YIVO Institute for Jewish Research. He is a founder of the Newark History Society and author of Nazis in Newark. This book tells the story of how the Minutemen, a group comprised of Jewish hoodlums, boxers and college students, fought against a local gathering of Nazis in the days leading up to World War II.

Scope and Content:

The Warren Grover collection originally contained his 1955 Weequahic High School yearbook and some personal documents, but now includes all research materials related to his landmark publication, Nazis in Newark. The yearbook and other personal papers are within the series “Personal Documents” and the materials related to the book, Nazis in Newark is in the “Publications” series.

The collection remains in Warren Grover's original order. His subject headings have been retained as well. A simple re-folding and removal of materials hazardous to an archival collection has been performed. The arrangement is alphabetical within the collection.

NOTE: The Jewish Historical Society of MetroWest also houses some papers of Dr. S. William Kalb, as mentioned in Chapter 4 of Grover's Nazis in Newark.

This collection is comprised of paper and photographs and is divided into two series:

- I. Personal documents
- II. Publications
